

9. Whoso that will all feats obtain Henry Tudor

Who- so that will all feats ob- - tain, In love he
 Where- fore to love and be not lov'd Is worse
 Love is giv- en to god - and man; To wo-

5

must be with out dis- dain For love en- for- ceth all no- ble kind than death. Let it be prov'd. Love en- cou- ra- geth and ma- keth one bold man al- so, I think the same. But dis- dain is vice and should be re- fus'd;
 Great pi- ty it were, love for to com- pel

10

%

T T

And dis- dain dis- cou- ra- ges all gen- tle mind.
 Dis- dain a- ba- teth and ma- keth him cold.
 Yet ne- ver- the- less it is too much used.
 With dis- dain both - false and sub- tel.

15

Fine

Dal segno al fine after 3rd verse