

Who ever thinks or hopes of love John Dowland

Who ev- er thinks or hopes of love for love:
Who thinks that sor- rows felt, de- si- res hidden,

Or who be- lov'd in in Cu- pid's laws doth glo- ry:
Or hum- ble faith in in con- stant hon- our arm- ed,

Who joys in vows, or vows not to re- move: Who by Can keep love from the fruit that is re- for- bidden, Who thinks

- this light- god hath not - - been - made
- that change is by en- - en- - treasor-ry: charm-ed, Let him see me e-let

Look- ing on me e-let 20

clips-ed from my sun, With dark clouds of an him know, love's de- lights Are trea- sures hid in 25

earth, caves, with are dark clouds of an earth caves, quite ov- but kept

- er- - - run. run. - by - - sprites. sprites.