The musical score consists of six staves of rhythmic notation, likely for a single instrument or voice. The notation uses vertical stems and horizontal bars to represent different note values. Below each staff, a series of letters (a, r, e, b, d) serve as vocalizations or performance instructions. Measure numbers (5, 10, 15, 20, 25) are indicated in square boxes at the beginning of certain measures.

Staff 1:

- Measure 1: Four vertical stems followed by a vertical stem with a bar above it, then a vertical stem with a bar below it.
- Measure 2: Two vertical stems followed by a vertical stem with a bar above it, then a vertical stem with a bar below it.
- Measure 3: Vertical stem with a bar above it, then two vertical stems.
- Measure 4: Three vertical stems followed by a vertical stem with a bar above it.
- Measure 5: Vertical stem with a bar above it, then two vertical stems.
